

POETRY READING

Studio 7 Art Gallery

SUNDAY, APRIL 24, 1:00 P.M.

87230 CENTRAL RD, EUGENE

KELLY TERWILLIGER grew up on the Oregon coast and has lived in Eugene for many years. She is a poet, storyteller, and visual artist. She has authored two poetry collections, A Glimpse of Oranges and Riddle, Fishhook, Thorn, Key, and several children's books. She works as an oral storyteller in public schools and is compiling an anthology of handwritten poems of address with fellow poet Cecelia Hagen.

LAURA LEHEEW grew up in the Midwest where she spent her childhood summers playing Man from U.N.C.L.E and chasing fireflies. Laura's newest collections are Dear John— (The Poetry Box, 2021) and Let Widows Be Widows (Unsolicted Press, 2022). Laura spent the pandemic taking photos of rivers and roses. Find her at: www.lauralehew.com | www.utteredchaos.org.

NANCY CAROL MOODY is the author of The House of Nobody Home, Photograph with Girls, and Mermaid, and her work has appeared in The Southern Review, Gettysburg Review, and Tampa Review. Nancy also constructs collages, the layering of various elements not so different from the way she builds her poems. She lives in Eugene with more than a thousand pens.

Masks and vaccination are strongly encouraged. The room will be well-ventilated.

For more info: eslportland@gmail.com or visit Studio 7 on Facebook