

The Studio Series Poetry Reading & Open Mic March 10, 2024 (Sunday) @ 7:00 PM

Featuring Doug Stone and Janice Rubin

Doug Stone is a fourth generation Oregonian and lives with his wife between Albany and Corvallis near the Willamette River in Benton County. He worked in social services for 40 years and most recently was an analyst and consultant on public policy issues for states, AARP, and the Civil Rights Division of the US Department of Justice. He has won the Oregon Poetry Association's Poet Choice Award and is a two time Pushcart nominee. His poems have been published in numerous journals and in the anthology, A Ritual To Read Together: Poems in Conversation with William Stafford. He has written two chapbooks, The Season of Distress and Clarity (Finishing Line), and The Moon's Soul Shimmering on the Water (KPD), and a poetry collection, Sitting in Powell's Watching Burnside Dissolve in Rain (The Poetry Box).